DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I in the reply filed on August 30, 2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the subject matters are closely related and additional fees have been paid for claims in excess of twenty. This is not found persuasive because of the distinctness of the Groups as set forth in the previous Office Action and a serious burden would be placed on the examiner to examine all Groups.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 1-52 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over PCT Patent Publication WO 97/35457 (Tungare).

Tungare teaches a glass fiber product comprising at least one glass fiber and particles adhered thereto. The glass fiber product can be yarns or fabric, per claims 3 and 4, and have a coating composition applied thereto as required by claim 2. The particles can be talc and have a maximum particle size of about 40 μm and are present in amounts up to about 20 wt%, as required by claims 5-24, 30, 32, and 47-52. See pages 2 and 5. As to claims 33-46, it is the examiner's position that since the glass fiber product of Tungare includes particles having a size within applicants' range and said particles are added in the same amounts contemplated by applicants, properties such as the reduction of tackiness, frictional tension, spatially separating, and tractive tension are the same or substantially similar to those properties contemplated by applicants, in the absence of factual evidence to the contrary. Regarding claims 25-29, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to choose the specific particles commensurate with the desired properties of the end product. Moreover, in the present instance, the particular type of particle is not construed to be a matter of invention.

No claims are allowed.
